

Week 3
When a Sword Pierces Your Soul

"And a sword will pierce your own soul too."
Luke 2:35

Christmas reassures us that God knows what we're going through.

John 1:1, 14 (NKJV), "In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God...and the Word became flesh and dwelt among us."

Matthew 1:23, "'The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel' (which means 'God with us')."

Christmas reassures us that God overcomes what we're going through.

Revelation 21:1-5, "Then I saw 'a new heaven and a new earth,' for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 4 'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.' He who was seated on the throne said, 'I am making everything new!'"

Luke 1:32-33, "He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High....He will reign [and] his kingdom will never end."

"Is everything sad going to come untrue?"
