

Common Ground Café

Sermon Discussion Guide

Sunday, June 21, 2020

Singing Our Missions Song

Psalm 67

www.hillcrest.church

Get to Know You

What would be a song that would signify a theme for this point in your life?

Study the Book

Pastor Tom called Psalm 67 a “Missions Song” that shows God’s international purpose for His people.

Read Psalm 67

God’s purpose is to be known among all nations (v. 2).

What people, country, or region do you have a burden for gospel advancement?

God’s purpose is to be praised among all nations (v. 3).

What would you find most intriguing about a worship service that including people from all nations?

God’s purpose is to be enjoyed among all nations (v. 4).

What does it mean that God is to be enjoyed among the nations?

God's purpose is to be feared among all nations (v. 7).

How do we move from enjoying God to fearing Him? How do these emotions coexist?

God's plan is to be gracious for the sake of the nations.

What does it mean to receive a blessing in the context of these verses? How might this be similar and/or different from what people may refer to on social media as #blessed?

God's plan is to bless us for the sake of the nations.

How is a request for God's blessing modeled in these verses one and two? (Notice the transition in verse 2.)

How might a contemporary and specific prayer for blessing follow this example?

God's plan is to make His face shine upon us for the sake of the nations.

How is a request for God's face to shine upon us similar/different from requesting a blessing?

Group Application and Discussion

What are some ways that your group can be involved in supporting the spread of the gospel to all nations?

Personal Reflection and Application

How can you be involved in international mission?

Do you have a burden to pray, give, or go to a specific region or people group?

Do you need to get a passport? Save money for a trip? Budget to give regularly? Research needs for an area?

Go to www.imb.org to find out more information about what Southern Baptists are doing across the globe to bring the gospel to all nations.