Read John 8:2-11

What must we do in relation to others? Practice grace.

How would you define grace?

How can the church be so zealous for morality that they lack grace?

How does grace uphold morality? Or does grace leave people alone?

What must we do in relation to ourselves? Practice self-examination.

Who walked away from the crowd first? Why is this significant?

How are we to implement that practice of Matthew 5:7-8 in our lives?

What must we do in relation to Jesus? Practice obedience.

How do you think the women in the story felt throughout the narrative?

How did Jesus respond to her? How was Jesus uniquely able to give this response?

What does it mean to forgive someone?

Group Application and Discussion

What makes it hard to forgive someone?

How do we balance grace with upholding moral principles in Scripture?
